(b) Check-in: No student is permitted to check into the residence hall before the designated check-in date and time as set by the Office of Student Housing. All early arrivals will be asked to wait until the scheduled check-in time to register for accommodations. (c) Check-out: All students must check out of the residence hall on the designated check-out date and time as set by the Office of University Housing. (d) Late check-out: The student will be charged a daily rate of $75 if he or she vacates after the designated check-out date and time.

2. CANCELLATION AND REFUND POLICY. A student who wishes to cancel this housing contract must petition the Director of Student Housing in writing at least two weeks prior to the requested cancellation date. The $100 deposit is forfeited in all instances. No refund will be made for any student's late check-in or early departure. Once the cancellation request is granted, the resident must vacate the residence hall no later than 72 hours from the date of notification of approval of the cancellation request. Failure to vacate in a timely manner will result in additional penalties. All cancellation requests received by April 2, 2007 will receive 100% refund; cancellation requests received between April 2, 2007 and May 1, 2007, inclusive will receive 80% refund; and all cancellation requests received after May 1, 2007 will receive 0% refund.

3. VACATING PROCEDURES. The student agrees to vacate the residence hall at the time set forth by the Office of Student Housing, or sooner if the resident shall be in default hereunder. The student shall be responsible for all damages, direct or indirect, resulting from the resident's obligation under this agreement in any respect including, but not limited to, the cost of accommodations for each student that would otherwise occupy the residence hall, and all expenses, including legal fees incurred by The New School in connection with or as a result of the failure of the resident to vacate the residence hall, or in connection with the removal of the resident from the residence hall.

4. REGULATIONS. It is the intention of the Office of Student Housing that the residence halls be a safe and comfortable home for all summer residents. There are a number of specific rules and regulations which must be adhered to as well as a number of activities that cannot be tolerated. Any violation will be viewed by The New School as grounds for immediate removal, without refund, from the residence halls. The resident agrees to review and abide by all the policies and regulations of The New School and the Office of Student Housing that are, or shall become, effective during the term of this agreement. These policies and regulations are included in the Housing Contract, the Residence Hall Handbook, and other publications distributed by the university.

5. SMOKING REGULATIONS. The residence halls are smoke-free facilities. Smoking is not allowed in any area of the buildings, including bedrooms, hallways, and other common areas.

6. BUILDING DAMAGES. The student agrees to take reasonable care of the building and rooms used and to restore them to their condition as of the date of check-in, if necessary. The student will be responsible for any costs resulting from damage to and/or loss to university property.

7. RIGHT OF ENTRY. The New School may exercise the following rights: (i) To enter any accommodation which student has been assigned pursuant to this agreement in order to inspect the premises for the purpose of health, management, safety, or compliance with applicable rules and regulations; (ii) To make building and room repairs during the time the student has been assigned pursuant to this agreement. Every effort will be made by The New School to minimize inconvenience, and wherever possible, advance notice will be given; (iii) To vacate any of the accommodations and require the occupants to move to other New School accommodations.

8. BUILDING REPAIRS AND CAMPUS CONSTRUCTION. Summer is the only time that major maintenance work, painting, and other building repairs can be performed in the residence halls. Be aware that painting, carpet replacement, facility enhancement, lighting projects, extended electrical outage for elevator repairs, and other similar work might affect residents. Major construction projects are scheduled to take place at various locations on and around the New School campus this summer. Any or all of these projects may cause noise, system interruptions, and access changes. We will make every effort to inform residents of any work that might affect their stay.

9. RIGHTS RESERVED BY THE NEW SCHOOL. The New School reserves the right: (a) of injunction and the right to invoke any remedy at law or in equity, as if re-entry, summary proceedings and other remedies were not herein provided for, and the selection of one or more remedies shall not preclude The New School from any other remedy; (b) to conduct inspections to ensure health, safety, and general welfare of members of the university community, or to maintain the physical security of university properties. Access to residence halls by university staff will be generated as the university determines necessary; (c) at any time and for any reason, in its sole discretion, to change or cancel the residence hall assignment. The university is not liable for the loss of money or valuables by any person, nor the loss or damage to any resident's property.
